

SCHOOLS & COLLEGES PROGRAMME 2017-2018

FILM & MEDIA

Welcome to our Film & Media programme for 2017 - 2018.

Our year-round Schools & Colleges programme uses film, visual art and theatre to enrich students' learning.

Throughout the year, there are a variety of Film & Media study sessions, which have been specifically programmed to support AS and A2 Film & Media Studies programmes, with additional Into Film Festival screenings programmed for younger pupils.

For more information about any of the study sessions listed below, please visit homemcr.org/schools

For more information about films and special events which may be of interest to Film & Media students, sign up to our weekly e-newsletter at homemcr.org/sign-up

INTO FILM TEACHER SESSION: LEARNING THROUGH FILM

Tue 26 September 2017, 18:00 – 20:00

Recommended for teachers of KS2 and KS3
Free, 20 places

The session will prepare teachers for their Into Film Festival trips taking place in November, and demonstrate how they can get the most out of the festival screenings.

The session will be delivered by Andy Partington from Into Film, a charity that puts film at the heart of children's and young people's education. Into Film will run through pre-screening, during screening and post-screening activity ideas to support curricular engagement with the films. This includes film analysis, film reviewing, predictive work and simple filmmaking activities.

To book free tickets for this event, please visit the Into Film Festival website from 7 September at intofilm.org/festival

MY LIFE AS A COURGETTE (PG)

Dir Claude Barras/France/Switzerland 2016

66mins/French with English Subtitles

Gaspard Schlatte/Sixtine Murat/Paulin Jaccoud

After a tragic accident, Courgette (a 9-year-old boy) is sent to a foster home filled with other orphans his age. At first, he struggles to find his place in this strange and hostile environment but soon he learns to trust again. In spite of its juvenile appearance, My Life as a Courgette is a mature story that deals with the complicated issues of growing up in a sensitive, thought-provoking and humorous way.

FILM & MEDIA STUDY DAY:

GENDER AND IDENTITY IN DOCUMENTARY: ALL THIS PANIC

Thu 7 December 2017, 10:30 - 15:00

Recommended for A2 and equivalent level Film & Media Studies

£7 per student, 147 places

Doors open to school groups: 10:15

This study day will allow students to discuss representations of youth and identity and will explore the use of documentary techniques to capture the complex lives of teenagers growing up in an urban setting.

Led by Dr Kirsty Fairclough, Senior Lecturer in Media and Performance, University of Salford

ALL THIS PANIC (15)

Dir Jenny Gage/USA 2016

80mins/English

Dusty Rose Ryan/Delia Cunningham/Lena M./Ginger Leigh Ryan

Filed over the course of three years, this intimate documentary follows Ginger and Dusty, sisters growing up in New York City as they navigate high school politics and growing up in front of the lens. The teens are disarmingly eloquent and surprisingly candid as they let the camera witness the most confusing, painful, and exciting time of their lives

FILM & MEDIA STUDY DAY:

NARRATIVE AND GENRE: UNDER THE SHADOW

Thu 1 February 2018, 10:30 - 15:00

Recommended for A2 and equivalent level Film & Media Studies

£7 per student, 147 places

Doors open to school groups: 10:15

This session will focus on Under the Shadow as a case study to explore narrative expectations and genre fluidity. Under the Shadow is a 2016 internationally co-produced horror film written and directed by Iranian-born Babak Anvari as his directorial debut. The study day will allow students the opportunity to debate the subversion of generic conventions and explore how narrative techniques operate to allow socio-political subtexts to emerge.

Led by Dr Kirsty Fairclough, Senior Lecturer in Media and Performance, University of Salford

UNDER THE SHADOW (15)

Dir Babak Anvari/GB/Iran/Jordan 2016

84mins/Persian with English Subtitles

Narges Rashidi/Avin Manshadi/Bobby Naderi

This ambitious feature debut blends period detail of 1980s Iran with a good old-fashioned horror story, crafting a film that is as smart as it is scary. eloquent and surprisingly candid as they let the camera witness the most confusing, painful, and exciting time of their lives
