

SCHOOLS & COLLEGES PROGRAMME 2018-2019

FILM & MEDIA

Welcome to our Film & Media programme for 2018 - 2019.

Our year-round Schools & Colleges programme uses film, visual art and theatre to enrich students' learning.

Throughout the year, there are a variety of Film & Media study sessions, which have been specifically programmed to support AS and A2 Film & Media Studies programmes, with additional Into Film Festival screenings programmed for younger pupils.

For more information about any of the study sessions listed below, please visit homemcr.org/schools

For more information about films and special events which may be of interest to Film & Media students, sign up to our weekly e-newsletter at homemcr.org/sign-up

HOME's Schools & Colleges Film & Media programme is supported by the University of Salford.

MANCHESTER ANIMATION FESTIVAL 2018

Tue 13 - Thu 15 Nov 2018

Join us this November for a celebration of all things animated. Manchester Animation Festival returns for its fourth year with special guests, previews, screenings, workshops, retrospectives, masterclasses and more.

The full programme will be announced in the Autumn.

INTO FILM FESTIVAL SCREENING
BIG BAD FOX AND OTHER TALES

Fri 16 Nov 2018, 10:30 - 12:30

Recommended for Key Stage 1 & 2
Free, 147 places
Doors open to school groups: 10:15

To book free tickets for this event, please visit the Into Film Festival website from 6 September at intofilm.org/festival

SCREENING: THE BIG BAD FOX AND OTHER TALES (U)

Dir Benjamin Renner/Patrick Imbert/FR 2017
83mins/English (dubbed)
Bill Bailey/Adrian Edmondson/Justin Edwards

The animals are agitated: a fox mothers a family of chicks, a rabbit plays the stork, and a duck wants to be Santa Claus. However, underneath the gags, the three stories offer a sensitive and beautiful portrayal of family and the anxieties of modern life.

Brought to HOME in partnership with Into Film Festival.

INTO FILM FESTIVAL SCREENING:
PADDINGTON

Fri 23 Nov 2018, 10:30 - 12:30

Recommended for Key Stage 1 & 2
Free, 147 places
Doors open to school groups: 10:15

To book free tickets for this event, please visit the Into Film Festival website from 6 September at intofilm.org/festival

This free Into Film screening is brought to you in association with Film: a language without borders which is a programme funded by Creative Europe. Resources have been developed for seven feature films, and three short films, that each explore the experience of children arriving in an unfamiliar place, or otherwise having an experience of being different. Further information and the resource for Paddington can be found at bit.ly/2OAqSo1

SCREENING: PADDINGTON (PG)

Dir Paul King/GB/FR/US 2014
95mins/English
Ben Wishaw/Julie Walters/Hugh Bonneville

A young bear from Peru travels to London in search of a home with a label around his neck 'Please look after this bear. Thank you.' Lost and lonely at Paddington Station, his luck changes when he meets the Brown family.

Brought to HOME in partnership with Into Film Festival and Film - a language without borders.

FILM A2 STUDY DAY:

APPROACHES TO DOCUMENTARY: AMY

Thu 6 Dec 2018, 10:00 - 15:00

Recommended for A2 and equivalent level Film Studies

£8 per student, 147 places

Doors open to school groups: 09:45

This study day will explore approaches to documentary filmmaking techniques, narrative construction and celebrity culture through a close examination of Kapadia's film.

Students will have the opportunity to discuss the film's narrative structure, its use of archival footage and approach to audience positioning.

Led by Dr Kirsty Fairclough, Associate Dean: Research and Innovation at the School of Arts and Media, University of Salford

SCREENING: AMY (15)

Dir Asif Kapadia/GB 2015

128 mins/English

Amy Winehouse is one of the biggest music icons in British history. But while her music made her a star, her chaotic personal life stole headlines. Kapadia's film reveals the life behind the headlines by examining the story of a talented woman whose life ended far too young.

FILM AS STUDY DAY:

GENDER REPRESENTATION: LADY BIRD

Thu 31 Jan 2019, 10:30 - 15:00

Recommended for AS and equivalent level Film Studies

£8 per student, 147 places

Doors open to school groups: 10:15

This session will allow students to discuss representations of youth, gender and identity. It will explore issues surrounding the complexities of representing coming of age in film, parental relationships and the ways in which Lady Bird may subvert ideas that teen films often reinforce, the notion that young women can only find fulfilment via conventional heterosexual relationships.

Led by Dr Kirsty Fairclough, Associate Dean: Research and Innovation at the School of Arts and Media, University of Salford

SCREENING: LADY BIRD (15)

Dir Greta Gerwig/US 2017

94 mins/English

Saoirse Ronan/Odeya Rush/Timothee Chalamet

A bittersweet take on the awkward space between adolescence and adulthood. A rebellious young woman from a loving but cash strapped family navigates the pressures and constraints of Catholic school whilst dreaming of escape to the bright lights.
