

Creative Careers - Theatre Careers Day

If you aged 14 – 16 and interested to find out all about jobs and careers in Theatre, join us at HOME's Theatre Careers Day on Tuesday 25th October 2022, 11am – 4pm.

This workshop is free to attend and no previous experience is required. A free lunch will be provided for everyone at 1pm.

Places are confirmed on a first-come, first-serve basis and there are 15 places available. There is also a waiting list and you will be informed if you have a place confirmed by email by Monday 17th October.

Across the day you will:

· Discover Creative Careers in Theatre.

Learn about lots of types of jobs and careers in everything from Acting, Lighting, Production, Stage Management, Wardrobe, Set Design, Technical Production, Sound, Writing, Directing, Script writing and more.

· Learn practical on-stage and off-stage skills.

Enjoy a practical workshop with other like-minded young people where you can try your hand at a variety of theatre roles and see what you like best.

· Meet industry professionals and careers advisors.

Chat to Theatre practitioners, producers, and technicians about their journey to their roles and how they got to where they are. Get hints, tips and honest reflections of their experiences.

· Explore your options and local routes into industry.

Learn about local opportunities to get into theatre from college courses, theatre programmes, Apprenticeships, Traineeships, Freelance work and being your own boss.

Led by HOME's Creative Development Theatre Practitioner Kris Overend, the director behind HOME's Young Company and 'The Lost World' Kris also set up Little Fin Productions, Stockport-Based Theatre company and has produced for theatres across the North-West.
