A Complicite Associates and National Theatre co-production in association with HOME presents A PACIFIST'S GUIDE TO THE WAR ON CANCER

20 – 24 SEP

Book by Bryony Kimmings & Brian Lobel
Music by Tom Parkinson. Lyrics by Bryony Kimmings

A Pacifist's Guide to the War on Cancer, is a new musical performance which takes you on a whistle-stop tour through five unconventional stories, examining life with a cancer diagnosis and confronting the highs and lows of the scariest word we know.

Expect big anthems, shiny costumes, blood, tears and real cancer patients, in this rip-roaring, heartbreaking celebration of ordinary life and death, scratching at the battle metaphors that surround cancer.

THE EMPEROR 28 SEP – 8 OCT

Master of transformation, Kathryn Hunter, brings to life an extraordinary tale of corruption and the collapse of absolute power – from the team behind the international success Kafka's Monkey.

In this world premiere based on the astonishing book about Ethiopia's Haile Selassie by legendary journalist Ryszard Kapuściński, Hunter creates and brings to life a mesmerising cast of characters and servants, to a strong ruler on the brink of downfall.

Featuring live music from Temesgen Zeleke.

"Ms. Hunter's performance is perhaps the most physically remarkable I've ever seen on a stage." – The New York Times on Kafka's Monkey

MOLLY'S MARVELLOUS MOUSTACHE SUN 2 OCT, 11:30, 14:00

A treat for all the family, direct from the 2016 Edinburgh Fringe.

Molly wants to be just like the grown ups. So her mummy makes her a moustache. With her moustache she can go anywhere and do anything she likes. She can go on adventures, blast off into space and create incredible inventions.

But being a grown up isn't all fun. What if Molly has to eat olives and spicy sauce? And what about having to go to work?

★★★★★ "A profoundly moving celebration of the love and hope Morpurgo writes about in his books." The Stage

GHOSTS 18 NOV – 3 DEC

Helene Alving spent years creating the illusion of a happy marriage to a successful, charming man. Long after his death, she is still trapped by the emotional after-effects of the truth – as he was a serial adulterer and a reckless alcoholic.

Trapped by obligations and expectations, Helene decides to clear the ghosts of the past and free herself from the regrets that haunt her but when her artist son Oswald returns home, it becomes clear that he has already paid the price for his father's past.

Some legacies are impossible to escape. Some ghosts can never be laid to rest.

WOW! SAID THE OWL 14 – 30 DEC

A lovely Christmas treat for children aged 2-5.

Come and explore the wow-world of colours with a curious little owl who is determined to stay awake to see what daylight brings.

Wow! Said the Owl, the acclaimed children's book by award winning author Tim Hopgood, is brought to life through a blend of beautiful storytelling, puppetry and music.

This show will delight and excite children aged 2-5yrs.
